Case No. CIV-19-489-R

ORDER

The Court reluctantly grants Plaintiff's Motion for Revised Scheduling Order [Doc. 25].

This case has been on file for well over a year and it is apparent that Plaintiffs have done very little to pursue the matter. Additionally, it is apparent that Defendants have had to drag discovery out of Plaintiffs and then, only after repeated phone calls and e-mails. If this continues, the Court will enter sanctions up to and including dismissal of the case.

That being said, the Court finds that there is no indication that a 90-day continuance would prejudice the Defendants and thus it is granted.

If Plaintiffs wish to amend their pleadings, they must do so within 7 days of the date of this Order, without prejudice to Defendants objecting thereto.

The remaining Scheduling Order deadlines are extended as follows:

Plaintiff to file final list of expert witnesses-in-chief and provide expert reports	January 4, 2021
Defendants to file final lists of expert witnesses-in-chief and provide expert reports	January 18, 2021
Plaintiff to file final list of witnesses-in-chief, with address and summary of expected testimony for each witness who has not been deposed	January 4, 2021
Defendants to file final lists of witnesses-in-chief, with address and summary of expected testimony for each witness who has not been deposed	January 18, 2021
Plaintiff to file final list of exhibits and provide all listed exhibits	January 4, 2021
